Council Policies

V. OFFICERS

D. Duties of Officers

1. The Chair is responsible for the general supervision of all activities of the Council in order to assure that the objectives of the Council are executed in the best possible manner. The responsibilities of the Chair shall include, but not be limited to, the following duties:

- (k) The Council Chair shall be authorized to act for the Council on matters which require Council action when neither the appropriate committee(s) nor the full Council can meet, providing:
 - i. input is solicited from the Council Vice-Chair, the Chair of the appropriate Committee, and other members of the Council reasonably known to be knowledgeable about the matter at hand (For purposes of this sub-section, "input" means to receive and disseminate information.); and,
 - ii such action shall be reviewed by the appropriate Committee of the Council when it next meets.

In the event three or more Council members place in writing a request for recession of this authority to the Executive Committee, this authorization may be temporarily suspended by the Executive Committee pending full review by the Council. The Executive Committee shall review and affirm or disaffirm such actions and recommend to the Council continuance or discontinuance of authority for such matters.
